- Being super organized and paying attention to the details
- Being resourceful when you don’t have the answers at your fingertips
- Working independently and with a certain amount of ambiguity while also being a productive member of a team of people from various areas of the organization
- Problem solving to assist in developing accounting best practices

Things you bring:
- Accounting designation/degree/diploma with 5+ years accounting experience or equivalent.
- Accounting and data-entry knowledge
- An appreciation of the importance of data entry and how it improves reporting systems
- Producing work with a high level of accuracy
- Superior organization skills
- Positive communicator with the confidence to communicate ideas and feedback in a respectable manner
- Proficiency with Microsoft excel
- Experience with Sage, ExpensePoint and SalesForce software an asset

About the Role
The Finance Manager will assist the VP, Finance & Resources and the VP, External Relations with all things financial which includes monitoring funding agreements, maintaining the general ledger and managing accounts payable and accounts receivable activity. Shad is on a trajectory to expand our 1000-person program and we need an organized individual to help maintain financial reporting and create best practices as we grow the number of campuses and programs that we offer our students.

With your attention to detail, you will work efficiently to assist in recording revenues, expenses and reconciling credit card statements on a monthly basis. You will also help to create a collaborative system to track and report on Shad’s existing and future funding agreements.

For most of the year, this role will be 37.5 hours per week during regular business hours. During program dates, specifically July, some flexibility may be needed to meet payment deadlines.

Shad Canada values the diverse and intersecting identities of its participants and team members. We believe that equity and diversity is an integral part of the Shad community and are committed to accessibility for all. We look for applicants who embrace our values of equity, anti-racism and inclusion. As such, we encourage applications from candidates who have been historically disadvantaged and marginalized, including applicants who identify as First Nations, Métis and/or Inuit/Inuk, Black, racialized, a person with a disability, women and/or 2SLGBTQ+. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply.
